

LET'S GET VACCINATED

FOR THE HOLIDAYS

The CDC recommends vaccination before the holidays.

The optimal time to immunize patients against the fall/winter respiratory viruses this holiday season is NOW.

Viral respiratory season has arrived and is expected to worsen over the next several weeks in much of the country.

Rates of vaccination for some populations are lagging behind where we've been in years past.